 Homeroom Links

Beginning next week, Dr. Donlevie will NO LONGER send Google Calendar invites for our morning homeroom. So that means that you all need to make sure you have access to the homeroom links each day. The links were recently added to the WEMS Classroom Code Distribution Sheet that was sent out earlier this year (that's the Google sheet with all the Google Classroom Codes to your academic classes as well as our clubs & activities). The links will also be posted in today's daily bulletin.
