Enrichment Tutorial

Join Ms. Perez TOMORROW, February 24th from 11:00-11:45 via Zoom to discuss Amanda Gorman, the youngest inaugural poet in U.S. history; how she came to write "The Hill We Climb"; and how it fits into the tradition of occasional poetry.

You will also learn about Ms. Gorman's belief that poetry is political, and that reading and writing are instruments of social change. You will be invited to create your own occasional poems. Please click the link below.

MathCounts Club Competition

The year's 2021 MathCounts Competition Team members did exceptionally well!!! The team members were Madison Cronin, Siena Jacobs, Ilias Skounakis and Naya Ashji. Madison Cronin has been qualified to advance in the Chapter Invitational on 2/25!! Big congratulations goes out to the entire Competition team on all their hard work this year.

Though the competition team only had 4 students, the MathCounts Club consisted of an AMAZING group of hardworking and bright students, capable of thinking critically to solve advanced mathematical applications. The other members of the MathCounts Club are Naya Al Zarabili, Alexander Bejjani, Carlos Panchana, Anthony Papamarkos, Seongbhin Park, Jennah Saffarini and Siddarth Sooknanan.

They are a gifted and hardworking group & W.E're so proud of all their hard work and accomplishments!

Go Knights!!!
